British Afternoon Tea for Twelve

"There are few hours in life more agreeable than the hour dedicated to the ceremony known as afternoon tea." - Henry James.

England native, world-wide arts supporter, and current Tri-Cities dance teacher

Susan Presti is delighted to entertain you and twelve guests with a traditional English afternoon tea. Afternoon Tea is an entirely royal affair and a truly British custom dating back to the early 19th century. Celebration of this wonderful tradition will include finger sandwiches, cream scones, cakes, a waterfall of tea, coffee, and of course, a glass of Pims! British dress code, including hats and fascinators, is enthusiastically encouraged, and there may even be a prize for the best one! Splurge on raffle tickets this evening to take part in the sophisticated indulgence in the heights of the Tri-cities. Schedule in fair season months; September, October or Spring/Summer 2018. Offer expires August 1st, 2018. Contact Susan at s.presti@btinternet.com.

Retro Cocktail Hour at the Gowen Bar for Twelve

Join Justin Raffa and Molly Holleran in their alphabet home affectionately titled the Gowen Bar, along the banks of the Columbia River. Signature cocktails will be served al fresco (weather dependent) for up to twelve guests. With food catered by Ethos Bakery & Café and live performances provided by members of the Mastersingers, the winner can work with the host ahead of time to develop a drink menu for the evening based on their preferences. The Gowen Bar is known by many in the arts community as "the place to be" and the guests at this Retro Cocktail Hour will be sure to have a night to remember, all the way into the wee hours of the morning for the night owls in your party. Offer expires August 1st, 2018; contact Justin at 509-308-5395 or jraffa@mcmastersingers.org.

Fondue Dinner Party for Eight

This Fondue Dinner Party for Eight will be hosted by Alex Roeder and John Masulonis in their home in South Kennewick. The bar will be open upon guest arrival for cocktails prepared by John Masulonis. Wine will be paired with the Fondues. Dinner will include appetizers, three different cheese fondues, and even dessert fondues. This throwback from the 70s is coming back and 70s attire is encouraged! We have found that a fun evening with wine, cheese, and CHOCOLATE can make for priceless memories and lasting friendships. If you love cheese, CHOCOLATE, and time with good friends, this is for you. Offer expires August 1st, 2018; contact Alex at AlexRoeder@msn.com.
